

TRINITY SUNDAY
JUNE 12, 2022, 11AM

The Creation of Adam - Michelangelo (1512)

The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts long ago.

Then I was beside him like a master worker, and I was daily his delight,

Rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

Proverbs 8:22, 30-31

ST. PETER'S EPISCOPAL
CHURCH

The First Sunday After Pentecost – Trinity Sunday

Rector: The Rev. Catherine D. Hicks

(BCP—Book of Common Prayer, H-Hymnal 1982; S Numbers are the service music found in the front of The Hymnal 1982; WLP-Wonder, Love and Praise) LEVAS-Lift Every Voice and Sing II)

In the name of Christ, we welcome you to this Church. May those who sorrow find comfort; the weary, rest; the unhappy, joy; the troubled, peace; the stranger, friends; and to all the sense of God's Presence in this holy place. We acknowledge that we gather on the traditional land of the first people of Port Royal, the Nandtaughtacund, and we honor with gratitude the land itself and the life of the Rappahannock Tribe.

Ringling of the Bell

Prelude	Vater unser im Himmelreich	JS Bach
Opening Hymn	Holy, holy, holy!	H 362
Opening Acclamation		BCP 355
Song of Praise	Glory to you, Lord God of our fathers	S 236

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

God of delight, your Wisdom sings your Word at the crossroads where humanity and divinity meet. Invite us into your joyful being where you know and are known in each beginning, in all sustenance, in every redemption, that we may show forth your unity in the diverse ministries you entrust to us, truly reflecting your triune majesty in the faith that acts, in the hope that does not disappoint, and in the love that endures. Amen.

A Reading from Proverbs, Chapter 8, Verses 1-4, 22-31.

Does not wisdom call,
and does not understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:

"To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live.

The LORD created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.

Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.

Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth--

when he had not yet made earth and fields,
or the world's first bits of soil.

When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,

when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,

when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,

when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;

and I was daily his delight,
rejoicing before him always,

rejoicing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the human race."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 8 Domine, Dominus noster (Read together in Unison)

1 O LORD our Governor, ***

how exalted is your Name in all the world!

2 Out of the mouths of infants and children ***

your majesty is praised above the heavens.

3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, * to quell the enemy and the avenger.

4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, ***

the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,

- 5 What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out?
- 6 You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor;
- 7 You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet:
- 8 All sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field,
- 9 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.
- 10 O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

A Reading from Paul's Letter to the Romans, Chapter 5, Verses 1-5.

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

Glory to you Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Holy, holy, holy God, in calling forth creation from the void, revealing yourself in human flesh, and pouring forth your wisdom to guide us, you manifest your concern for your whole universe. You invite us, your people, to gather the world's needs into our hearts and to bring them before you.

We pray that the love which passes ceaselessly between the Father and the Son in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit may renew and deepen the life of each Christian and draw us all gathered here into your unending life. Holy God, hear our prayer.

We pray for all leaders, and for the leaders of the nations, that they may discern the ways to overcome divisions and mistrust. May they reflect your unity in every aspect of common life. We pray for an end to the war in Ukraine. We pray for your comfort and sustenance for all who suffer because of this war. Holy God, hear our prayer.

We pray that knowing you through your Son, Jesus, and your enduring presence among us as Spirit may help us to more fully understand both you, one another, and ourselves, made in your image and likeness. Holy God, hear our prayer.

We pray for our families, our households and our communities, that they may be places of communion and mutual support, which build us up and strengthen us in grace and truth. Holy God, hear our prayer.

We pray for the determination to end our violence toward one another in thought, word, and deed. Give solace to those who mourn this day who have lost a child, a parent, a brother or sister, husband, wife or friend due to gun violence. Holy God, hear our prayer.

Until your reign of peace is fully realized on this earth, we pray for all who serve in our armed forces, especially those on our prayer list. Defend them day by day with your heavenly grace, strengthen them in their trials and temptations, give them courage to face the perils which beset them, and grant them a sense of your abiding presence wherever they may be. Holy God, hear our prayer.

We pray for all on our prayer list, especially John Whitfield, Toni Faibisy, Roger Key, John Hess, and for Cookie Davis. May their lives be filled with your healing power and restoration. Holy God, hear our prayer.

As we give thanks for our world which you made through Christ, and renewed in the power of his resurrection, we pray to be wise and careful caretakers of your creation. Holy God, hear our prayer.

We pray for all who have died, especially for Leon Boxley, friend of the Kramers, that entering into the fullness of your glory, they may rejoice in your presence forever. Holy God, hear our prayer.

Holy, holy, holy God, fill us with strength and courage, with discernment and compassion, that we may be your instruments of justice and love in this world, that it may be on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

The Holy Communion

Eucharistic Prayer 3, EOW

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider

All thanks and praise
are yours at all times and in all places,
our true and loving God;
through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word,

the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things.
You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb;
You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

Presider and People

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth
are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one
who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

or

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth
are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he
who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Presider continues

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all,

your Word has never been silent;
you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations,
you delivered them from bondage
and led them to a land of promise.
Of your grace, you gave Jesus
to be human, to share our life,
to proclaim the coming of your holy reign
and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.

Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer,
you have freed us from sin,
brought us into your life,
reconciled us to you,
and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us
Jesus took bread,
and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it,
gave it to his friends and said:
"Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine,
said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said:
"Drink this, all of you:
this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all
for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, remembering all that was done for us:
the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension,
longing for Christ's coming in glory,
and presenting to you these gifts
your earth has formed and human hands have made,
we acclaim you, O Christ:

Presider and People

Dying, you destroyed our death. Rising, you restored our life. Christ Jesus, come in glory!

The Presider continues

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us
the Body and Blood of your Christ.
Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power,
may be a people of hope, justice and love.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us
with [blessed _____, and] all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Presider and People

Blessed are you now and for ever. AMEN.

June 11 is the day we celebrate the life of St. Barnabas, the Apostle.

Barnabas was so vital to the spread of the Gospel that he earned the highest accolade that any Christian can receive; "...he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith." (Acts 11:24). His name means son of encouragement. When Saul appeared in Jerusalem after his conversion, it was Barnabas who spoke up for him with the Apostles and he was accepted. Paul and Barnabas parted ways when Paul refused to accept Mark ("John Mark") as his traveling companion.
